

Cathy Albro Announces Independent Candidacy for Michigan House District 104

Bellaire, MI — [Date] — Cathy Albro, a proven leader and compassionate advocate for community betterment, is proud to announce her candidacy for the Michigan House District 104 as an Independent. With a robust platform centered on community building, local investment, and constituent representation, Albro is determined to lead Michigan toward a more unified and prosperous future.

"I am running for State Representative with a clear vision and a deep commitment to leadership, compassion, and unification," Albro states. "Our communities face significant challenges, and it is time to come together, transcend political divides, and work towards effective solutions for all."

Cathy Albro brings a wealth of experience as a former educator, small business owner, and community leader. She spent over 30 years running successful small businesses and understands the challenges and opportunities facing local entrepreneurs. Her background in education has given her a deep understanding of the importance of investing in our children and future generations.

"The launch of my campaign represents a crucial step in our journey to bring positive change to District 104," said Cathy Albro. "I am committed to leading with integrity and compassion, ensuring that every resident has a voice in our future."

Albro's campaign is focused on fostering strong, vibrant communities by encouraging collaboration, empathy, and inclusivity. She believes in engaging with all constituents to address their needs and aspirations, creating an environment where everyone can thrive. "We need to work together, listen to each other, and build communities that reflect our shared values and goals,". She is committed to improving the local economy through strategic investments to support small businesses and families. "Investing in our communities is investing in our future. We must ensure that local businesses and workers have the resources they need to succeed"

Albro promises to be a voice for all residents of District 104, ensuring that their concerns and ideas are heard and addressed. She is committed to transparency, accountability, and fairness in her decision-making process.

"As your representative, I will prioritize your needs and work tirelessly to advocate for policies that benefit everyone," she says "Let's come together to build a better future for our families and communities".
